TENN. CODE ANN. §§ 71-5-181 TO -185

TO: VUMC Center for Transgender Health
7060-B Highway 70 South
Nashville, TN

This Civil Investigative Demand ("CID") is to investigate possible violations of the Tennessee False Claims Act ("TFCA"), Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-18-101, et seq. Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 8-6-401, there is reasonable cause to indicate the State of Tennessee will be a party litigant.

This CID is issued pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 8-6-401 to -408 and is subject to enforcement and possible sanctions upon failure to comply. In accordance with Tenn. Code Ann. § 8-6-407, all testimony or materials obtained by the Attorney General pursuant to this CID are confidential and shall not be publicly divulged by the Office of the Attorney General and Reporter except in the discharge of the duties of the office or in legal proceedings in which the state is a party.

Disclosure of protected health information ("PHI") under this CID is permitted in response to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry pursuant to 45 C.F.R §§ 164.103 and 164.512(f).

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that you are hereby commanded to produce all documents requested in Attachment B to this CID at the offices of the State of Tennessee Attorney General and Reporter, John Sevier Building, 500 Dr. Martin L. King, Jr. Blvd. North, Nashville, TN 37243, or any other place designated by the Attorney General and Reporter, no later than fifteen calendar days after receipt of this CID.

This CID should include the following attachments:

CID Attachment A: Instructions and Definitions
CID Attachment B: Documents Requested
CID Attachment C: Certification and Verification Affidavit
CID Confidential Attachment: List of Patients

If this CID is missing any of the above listed attachments, or if you have any questions regarding the scope, meaning or intent of this CID, please contact Steven Griffin at (615) 741-9598.

CID ATTACHMENT A

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS FOR THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

All documents must be provided in compliance with the following:

1. All responses to this CID shall be sent or delivered by hand-delivery, a nationally recognized delivery service, or in a mutually agreeable electronic format to:

Steven Griffin (615) 741-9598
Assistant Attorney General
Health Care Division
Office of Tennessee Attorney General
P.O. Box 20207
Nashville, TN 37202

Responses to this CID are not complete or valid without the return of the Certification and Verification Affidavit (CID Attachment C), executed under oath in the presence of a notary.

2. The terms of this CID, including any deadlines, may not be modified except by express written agreement by the Assistant Attorney General named in Instruction #1. Additionally, any questions regarding these forms, the scope of any request, any instruction or any definition shall be directed to the same Deputy Attorney General.
3. If any document requested was previously in your possession, custody, or control but is no longer in your possession, custody, or control, or no longer exists, state for each such document:
 - (a) the type of document;

- (b) whether it is missing, lost, has been destroyed, or has been transferred to the possession, custody, or control of other persons;
 - (c) the circumstances surrounding and the authorization for, the disposition described in the (b) above;
 - (d) the dates or approximate date of the disposition described in (b) above;
 - (e) the identity of all persons having knowledge of the circumstances described in (c) above; and
 - (f) the identity of all persons having knowledge of the document's contents
4. With respect to each document produced, identify the person producing the document.
 5. If you withhold any document on claim of privilege or other protection recognized by applicable law, you must provide a privilege log describing the documents in detail and stating the privilege, the basis of the privilege, and identify the documents to which the privilege attaches. Failure to provide an appropriate log will be deemed a waiver of the claimed privilege or protection. All documents withheld on claim of privilege or other protection remain subject to the preservation obligations described in paragraph 9 below.
 6. All uses of the conjunctive should be interpreted as including the disjunctive and vice versa in order to bring within the scope of this CID any information or documents that might otherwise be construed as outside of its scope.
 7. Words in the singular should be read to include the plural and vice versa.
 8. Each document request contemplates production of the entire document without abbreviation, deletion, or redaction.
 9. If you have a document retention or destruction program, you are asked to suspend it immediately. Regardless of whether you have a document retention or destruction program, you should take precautions to ensure that relevant information, in both hard copy and electronic form, is not destroyed or altered, whether by operation of routine document retention or destruction policies or otherwise. These measures should be applied to and include information that is processed and stored electronically, including active data, archival data, and backup data; to the extent data available in these forms is responsive to this CID.
 10. Copies may be submitted in lieu of originals as long as the person and/or entity named in this CID indicates that the documents are copies, the location of the originals, and the reason for the substitution of copies. All originals must be retained as set forth in the Certification and Verification Affidavit. Additionally, you must sign the Certification and Verification Affidavit, agreeing that the documents are authentic for the purposes of Tennessee law.
 11. The Confidential Attachment to this CID contains individually identifiable health information known as Protected Health Information ("PHI"), the disclosure of which is governed by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”), Pub. L. 104-191, and the HIPAA Privacy Rule, 45 CFR §§ 160 and 164. The PHI contained in the Confidential Attachment shall be handled as required by the HIPAA Privacy Rule, shall only be used for purposes of this CID, and may only be disclosed to VUMC’s counsel, and their respective employees and support personnel.

12. “Vanderbilt University Medical Clinic for Transgender Health” or “VUMC” refers to Vanderbilt University Medical Center and its Clinic for Transgender Health and its Vanderbilt Pediatric & Adolescent Transgender Health division, as well as any affiliated entity, or any entity sharing ownership and/or management with VUMC, or any affiliated entities or entities otherwise providing medical care or healthcare services to patients enrolled in the State of Tennessee Comprehensive Medical and Hospitalization Program (“State Health Plan”).
13. “Document” or “Documents” means any written, printed, typed, electronically produced or graphic matter of any kind or nature however produced or reproduced, currently in your possession, custody, or control, including any writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, phono-records, and other data and data compilations stored in any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation into a reasonably usable form.
14. “Identify” with respect to an individual means to state that person’s full name and position, and with respect to a company or entity to state the company’s or entity’s correct legal name and address.
15. “Relating” or “relating to” means to make a statement about, discuss, describe, reflect, identify, deal with, consist of, establish, comprise, list, or in any way pertain, in whole or in part, to the subject.
16. “Relevant time period” means January 1, 2018, through the present.
17. “State Health Plan” means the State of Tennessee Comprehensive Medical and Hospitalization Program, including specific group plans within the larger comprehensive plan, such as the State Plan, the Local Education Plan, or the Local Government Plan, and all of their claims administrators, including, but not limited to, BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee and Cigna.
18. “You” and “your” includes VUMC and all parent and subsidiary entities and includes all of each entity’s officers, managers, employees, agents, board members, and other representative, including individuals or groups acting on each individual and entity’s behalf.
